Price of Rice and Indico, as last Week.

FEBRUARY 14.

The Apprehensions of a general Indian War, both in this Province and Georgia, have entirely subsided since our last—for, according to the latest Accounts said to be received from Alexander Cameron, Esq; Deputy Superintendent to the Cherokees, then at Ninety-Six, that Gentleman had very lately received such friendly Talks from the Headmen of that Nation as, we hear, left no Room to suspect a Confederacy between them and the Creek Nation, to attack the English Settlements in either Province, within the proper Limits: Mr. Cameron had, however, very prudently and humanely recommended, to the Inhabitants of those Parts which would be most exposed to Incursions by Indians, to build Stockade Forts for their Defence and Protection, while he goes into the Nation.—On the other Hand, the Headmen of the Creek Nation, are said to have denied, any Knowledge of, or Concern in, the Murders committed within these two Months on the Lands newly ceded to Georgia; they positively disown its being a national Affair. Fourteen rash young Fellows (a kind of Out-casts from the Nation) of the Coweta and Cussitah Towns, settled at a Place called the Standing-Peach Tree, together with three as mad young Cherokees, appear to be the only Persons concerned in the Murder of White and Sherrol's Families; and they are said to have committed those Outrages, in Revenge for the Death of one of their Party, who was found shot in their Hunting Grounds, and upon pursuing the Tracks of the Murderers directly to the Houses of said White and Sherrol; the former of whom it is believed did kill the Indian, pursuing him as a Horse Thief: This is confirmed, by certain Information, that none of the Traders in the Creek Nation have been killed, notwithstanding many Reports to the contrary. The same, and no other or greater, are said to be the Party that, within a Mile of Sherrol's House, on the 23d past, attacked and put to Flight the Detachment of 32 Georgia Militia and Rangers, who were sent from Augusta to protect the Survivors of Sherrol's Family, when Lieut. Grant was killed; and it is very probable, they attacked that Detachment, in Revenge for the Deaths of two of their Party who fell in the Attempt upon Sherrol's Stockade-Fort, on the 14th.

We have no Doubt of the Death of Lieutenant Grant. There are two Accounts of the Circumstances attending that unfortunate Gentleman's falling into the Hands of the Barbarians, and equally shocking. Both which we shall lay before our Readers, but cannot pretend to vouch the Truth of either.—One says, That he was not killed at the first Onset; that he was only stunned, fell from his Horse, and supported himself by the Mane; that the Indians seeing him deserted, returned, seized and bound him to a Tree, then retired to some Distance, and shot 30 Arrows into his Body; after which they cut off his Genitals, struck a Tomahawk into his Head, another into his Fundament, and burnt the Body. The other says, "his Body was found tied "to a Tree, a Gun Barrel, supposed to have been red hot, "was thrust into, and left sticking in, his Body; his Scalp and "Ears taken off, a painted Hatchet left sticking in his Scull, "twelve Arrows in his Breast, and a painted War-Club left "upon his Body." (See General Gazette.)

Capt. Goodgeon, whom commanded the Pannic-struck Detachment to which Mr. Grant belonged, narrowly escaped sharing the same Fate, by repeating his Endeavours to rally the Fugitives, till he was deserted by all to Six.

George Galphin, Esq; who, in the last General Gazette, is said to have encouraged those Indians who committed the late Murders, to settle at the Place called the Standing-Peach-Tree, and to carry on an advantageous Trade with them in their Hunting-Grounds beyond Ogeechie, and in the Neighbourhood of Okonie and Oakmulgui Rivers—is, a Native of Ireland—and a Gentleman, distinguished by the peculiar Excellency of his Character—of unbounded Humanity and Generosity—incapable of the least Degree of Baseness—and so much esteemed throughout the whole Creek Nation, that it may truly be ascribed to his Influence alone, that many a Rupture with those Indians has been prevented.

Last Wednesday put back to this Port, the Sloop Unity, which sailed from hence the 28th past for Turks-Island, the Master and Owner, Capt. Joseph Pitt, having been unfortunately knocked over-board by the Boom four Days after, and drowned. There being no Navigator on board, it was a happy Circumstance, that Capt. Monro, of the Friendship from this Port, met with the Vessel, and put a Man on board, who brought it in.

Last Thursday Mr. John Walter, Son of the late Col. William Walter, was married to the agreeable and accomplished Miss Jenny Oliphant, only Daughter of David Oliphant, Esq.

"The same Day Mr. James O'Hare, was married to Miss "Nancy Gordon, endowed with every Requisite for matrimo-"nial Happiness, and only Daughter of the late Mr. Thomas "Gordon."

Since the first of November last, there have been cleared from this Port, for Exportation, 29,718 Tierces of Rice, viz.

To North-America	5,019
To the West-Indies	5,356
To Great-Britain	12,404
To Spain	2,303
To Portugal	5,736

In the same Time have been cleared 199 Hogsheads of Tobacco, viz.

To Great-Britain	145
To North-America	54

And such Quantities of Pink-Root are now gathered in this Province, that no less than 62 Hogsheads of that Medicine also been shipped from this Port since the 1st November, viz.

To Great Britain	54
To North America	8

Besides the above Articles there have shipped from this Port, by the Commissioners of the Silk Manufacture, on board the Ship Carolina-Packet, Capt. William White, 4 Cases containing 405 Pounds of exceeding fine Raw Silk, and 27 Pounds of an ordinary Quality, all of the Growth and Culture of Purrysburg in this Province.

But to give a just Idea of the Value and Importance of the Trade of this Province, we will subjoin the Manifests of three Cargoes cleared the 22d of January, and 2d and 10th Instant, viz.

1. In the Ship Pallas, Capt. John Turner, for London. 343 Packages, containing 122,826 Pounds of Indico—43 Hhds containing 41,142 Pounds of Tobacco—790 Tierces of Rice—14 Tons Brazellitto Wood—1000 Pounds of Sassafras Root—8 Beaver Skins—22 dress'd, and 70 undress'd Deer Skins—900 Pipe Staves—and 2 Trunks and 2 Boxes returned Goods.

2. In the Tea Ship London, Capt. Alexander Curling, for London, 419 Packages containing 129,358 Pounds of Indico—20 Hhds and 126 Bundles containing 24,674 Pounds of Indian-dress'd Deer-Skins—18 Hhds containing 18,489 Pounds of Tobacco—739 Tierces of Rice—219 Barrels of Turpentine—1 Cask of Bees-Wax—1 Cask and 6 Boxes of Honey—and 16 Tons of Logwood.

3. In the Ship Carolina Packet, Capt. William White, for London. 400 Casks containing 146,967 Pounds of Indico—5 Hhds containing 3,029 Pounds of Indian-dress'd Deer-Skins—30 Hhds containing 28,434 Pounds of Tobacco—1 Hhd. containing 586 Pounds of Pink-Root—4 Casks containing 472 Pounds of Raw Silk—17 Casks containing 10,000 Pounds of Bees-Wax—619 Tierces of Rice—51 Barrels of Turpentine—82 Barrels of Tar—and 128 Elephants Teeth.

Last Night a Coasting Scooner, commanded and wholly owned by Capt. Roger Brown, with 96 Barrels of Rice on board, struck on the Bar, and immediately sunk, so that Capt. Brown and his People saved themselves with great Difficulty. And,

This Morning, a Scooner belonging to Mr. John Rose, with 42 Barrels of Rice on board, unfortunately filled, and sunk in the River.

The current Price of Rice is still 55*s.* per 100lb. but it is said, one Parcel has been sold this Morning at 52*s.* 6*d.* READY MONEY, which is exceeding scarce.

A GENERAL MEETING.

EVERY Inhabitant of the Town or Country, that can attend the said GENERAL MEETING, on Thursday the 3d of March, is desired to do so by Nine o'Clock in the Morning, at LIBERTY-TREE.
